

Celebrate all things LIBRARY!

Tuesday, April 19th 6:00PM vs. the Trenton Thunder (NYY)

The Portland Sea Dogs are celebrating National Poetry Month, National Library Week and National Library Worker’s Day, all in one, on Tuesday, April 19th, 2016. Prior to the game, we will be recognizing all library workers (full time, part time, and volunteer) for their hard work and dedication to the communities they work in with a parade around the warning track and on-field recognition ceremony. Also, an individual from each library will be able to represent their community by throwing out a ceremonial first pitch.

In addition, the Portland Sea Dogs will be hosting a book drive at Hadlock Field from Monday, April 11th through Tuesday, April 19th. Fans who bring in a book(s) for donation will have the opportunity to buy a ticket, receive one free for the Library Night event on April 19th. Books will be donated to local charities and libraries.

Tickets are available for purchase at the group rates of $5.00 for general admission seating and $7.00 for reserved seating. (Please note; ticket prices will increase by $1.00 beginning January 1st, 2016. If purchased prior to, you will receive the price above.)

To register your library, please fill out the information below. We will follow up with a phone call in the coming weeks regarding tickets for the event.
